

Perspectives on the Death Penalty

a panel discussion

Tuesday 3 August
5.45 for 6:00

Mallesons Stephen Jaques
Level 50, 600 Bourke Street
(Cnr Bourke & King)
Melbourne

www.reprive.org.au

Refreshments to be served afterwards

RSVP by Thurs 29 July
(for catering purposes)
rsvp@reprive.org.au

3 lawyers discuss how their encounters with capital punishment influenced their careers and perspectives on the law

Julian McMahon is a Melbourne based barrister who has acted in a number of death penalty cases in the Asia Pacific region including acting for Van Nguyen and the Bali Nine.

Mark Gibson is a Melbourne based barrister who has experience acting for both the defence and the Crown. Mark has worked with indigent defendants facing the death penalty in the US and has represented defendants with the Aboriginal Legal Service in Darwin.

Lucy Adams is a lawyer at PILCH who has previously worked at Clayton Utz and as a volunteer representing those facing execution in Louisiana.

MALLESONS STEPHEN JAQUES